NORMS

As Astrology is a holistic & spiritual discipline so certain norms have to be followed by students which are as under :-

- Any student joining AHSAS is supposed to be humble, honest, and judiciously ethical during learning & practice of any of the course.
- The fees are to be paid in advance and are non-refundable in any case/under any circumstances.
- Examination fee as determined by AHSAS will have to be borne by the student before the examination
- The students are advised to concentrate on the lectures while being in the class and are supposed not to disturb the class discipline & decorum in any way. 70% class attendance is must for appearing in the examination.
- Whatever is taught in the class, the student is supposed to restudy that at home and should verify by practice and can sort out his/her difficulties by asking to the concerned faculty member during the class.
- Students are supposed to keep their mobile phones either switched off or in silent mode during the class lectures.
- Only deserving candidates who qualify the examinations as designed & conducted by AHSAS in their respective discipline will be awarded Certificates & Diplomas.
- Any one not observing the norms is deemed to face disciplinary action as fixed by the management of AHSAS.
- The student must understand that the course(s) opted by him/her depends on DESH (Place), KAAL (Time), PATRA (Person) and many psychological factors and divine plan.

I promise that I will learn the course opted by me with an open mind & understand that there are exception, variations in the application & practical use of these rules as per the DESH/KAAL/PATRA & I strictly abide by the above rules & norms.
